

Brüel & Kjær Vibro

Vibration Analysis and Diagnosis for Rotating Machines

Vibration measurement techniques are still the single most effective means for reliably diagnosing a wide range of faults.

We have many years of experience in providing engineering consultation in a number of areas including field balancing, rotor dynamics, identification of symptoms and fault diagnosis, and failure and root cause analysis.

For more information please contact:

Service Business Manager
Nils Adamsen

Telephone: +45 77 41 23 78

E-mail: nils.adamsen@bkvibro.com

