

Brüel & Kjær Vibro

Business Analyst (m/f)

Brüel & Kjær Vibro is the leading independent supplier of safety and condition monitoring solutions for rotating machinery. Our worldwide network of branch offices and representatives strengthens our coverage and position in all strategic markets.

To reinforce our Finance Team, we are looking for a Business Analyst.

Essential duties:

- Collect relevant data to prepare periodic management reporting
- Follow-up on performance against budget on solid analysis
- Prepare budgets and forecasts
- Support Management in identifying new opportunities
- Prepare analysis of cost and profitability for strategic decisions
- Ensure compliance with internal control standards
- Participate in implementation of Business Intelligence strategy and tools
- Identify and explore opportunities for internal process improvement
- Facilitate risk management process and contingency planning

Your profile:

- Relevant university degree, i. e. Business Administration or similar
- Solid understanding of basic accounting rules, particularly project accounting
- Hands-on practitioner with expert knowledge of MS Excel
- Knowledge of SAP (FI/CO) is essential
- Proactive self-starter
- Strong analytical skills and business awareness
- Good command of English language
- Flexible to manage in times of peak workload

The candidate will receive thorough training and introduction to the position and will be offered a competitive package. If you recognise yourself in our description, please send your complete application to our HR Department.

Brüel & Kjær Vibro GmbH
Human Resources
Leydheckerstrasse 10
D-64293 Darmstadt

Tel.: +49 (0) 6151 428 1621
Fax: +49 (0) 6151 428 1001
E-mail: HumanResources@bkvibro.com
Internet: www.bkvibro.com